RW 930

I certify that William Callender engaged in the State Regiment of Artillery, under the command of Col Thos Crafts, as a Turner for the Labaratory, a Business much wanted at that time; that he was promised by the Field Officers, that he should not do any other duty in said Regiment; that he never has done any other Duty: And that while the Labo-ratory was in said Regiment. He behaved himself well, like an honest, good man.
